A NEW JOURNEY AWAITS IN SPINOFF

By Barb Oates

When fans said goodbye to the 12-year, 11-season run of The Walking Dead back in November, they knew they wouldn't have to wait long to see some of their favorite characters return in a new postapocalyptic adventure.

And the series' most unlikely pairing — Maggie (Lauren Cohan) and Negan (Jeffrey Dean Morgan) — are the subjects of AMC's new The Walking Dead: Dead City premiering on AMC Sunday, June 18. Now the two head to Manhattan, which has long been cut off from the mainland, where they see the dead being used as weapons, and they desperately search for Maggie's son Hershel. Here Cohan tells us what we can expect.

Where do we pick up with Maggie?

Maggie's a few years into the future and in a place that maybe she'd hoped to move on from or be in a different place in her life, but that's not the case. She's searching for her son and needs the help of Negan on this mission, and it's somebody that she never thought she'd have to see again, let alone deal with all the emotions that they bring up.

Besides the obvious of her missing son and working with Negan, what other demons is Maggie challenged with?

I think, honestly, it's so difficult to fathom the level of pain and loneliness and the parts of self that are just shut down in order to live this life. We're talking about someone 15 years into the apocalypse, which normalizes at some point to a degree. But it is fascinating to me to say that these realms of your heart and your mind are off limits. And that's a recipe for insanity. … The most flavorful part of this whole story is the complexity of human emotion and this kaleidoscope of pain and tension and need and unwillingness, and who can you trust and where can you turn and how do you keep going?

What's the New York scene look like?

The New York scene for us is different. We meet different people. We meet people who have learned to survive. There's a sense of the New York spirit inserted into an apocalypse, which I think everybody would be excited to see that cocktail. And we get to show the people that are still living, and we get to show the sea of the dead and then we're stuck on this island. Once you get on, you can't get off.

Seniors Compete Against Youngsters In "Generation Gap"

Generation Gap, the joyful game show hosted by Kelly Ripa, returns Thursday, June 29 to ABC with family teams made up of one junior and one senior battling over how much — or how little — they know about the other's generation. According to Ripa, one age group has an edge: "The seniors really know what's going on," she says. "They have a tremendous bandwidth of knowledge from all generations — not just theirs! We have to go to TikTok to try and stump them." In Season 2, three family teams compete (up from two), and another change endangers contestants' cash: If they get zero correct answers in a round, they could lose a portion of their winnings — bad for them but entertaining for us. "From our experience, the wrong answers are the best answers," says Ripa, chuckling. The final "Toddler's Choice" round — where the winners supplement the dough they've accumulated by sending their youngest family member to pick between, say, a shiny SUV or a ride-on unicorn — is more nail-biting than ever, Ripa says.

Dick Wolf's New "LA Fire & Rescue" Takes Us On The Job For Real Rescues By Barb Oates

In addition to being one of TV's most genius creators and producers, Dick Wolf, who has brought us beloved dramas like Chicago Fire, Law & Order and FBI, also has a good knack for timing. Long before the writers strike, he was working on the unscripted series LA Fire & Rescue (debuting Wednesday, June 21 on NBC, and available next day on the streaming service Peacock), where viewers will get unprecedented access into the inner workings of the Los Angeles County Fire Department.

You'll see firsthand the emotion, camaraderie and adrenaline-fueled day-to-day emergencies these heroes face. Five TV crews worked 24/7 to capture the action and meet the real heroes who are tasked with protecting the lives and property of 4 million residents across 2,300 square miles.

"LA Fire & Rescue is 100% real. There are no second takes — no scripting scenes," tells Rasha Drachkovitch, an executive producer on the show. "Viewers will get a front-row seat in seeing the high-stakes world of being a firefighter. Someone's worst day is met by a firefighter's best day — saving lives. I've produced a number of series in the first-responders space — it's incredible to see the courage these real-life heroes display on a daily basis. What makes LA Fire & Rescue different is the huge scope of the production; we're covering one of the largest fire departments in the world. And yet with all the high-tech equipment, aviation and volume of calls, it comes down to the human stories; how a firefighter has literally seconds to enter a burning building, at great personal risk, to save a family. It's so inspiring to be able to tell their stories."

Station 16 (Watts), which is nicknamed "The Fire Factory" due to the high volume of fire calls, follows longtime Capt. Dan Olivas, who is a father figure to his squad, and his son Jeff, a rookie at LACoFD, who has hopes of following in his father's footsteps.

"Seeing tearful Dan at his son's graduation ceremony — passing on the family tradition between father and son where they both get hoisted on the shoulders of fellow firefighters in celebration — is one of the most impactful moments in the series," Drachkovitch shares.

New and improved...Now more portable than ever.

"I haven't been this excited since I got my first bicycle!"

Introducing the new ZOOMER!

The portable, folding, battery-powered chair that offers easy one-handed operation

Remember when you were a child and got your first bicycle? I do. It gave me a sense of independence . . . I felt like I could go anywhere, and it was so much easier and more enjoyable than walking. Well, at my age, that bike wouldn't do me much good. Fortunately, there's a new invention that gives me the freedom and independence to go wherever I want . . . safely and easily. It's called the Zoomer, and it's changed my life.

My Zoomer is a delight to ride! It has increased my mobility in my apartment, my opportunities to enjoy the out-of-doors, and enabled me to visit the homes of my children for longer periods of time. The various speeds of it match my need for safety, it is easy to turn, and I am most pleased with the freedom of movement it gives me.

Sincerely, A. Macon, Williamsburg, VA

After just one trip around your home in the Zoomer, you'll marvel at how easy it is to navigate. It is designed to maneuver in tight spaces like doorways, between furniture, and around corners. It can go over thresholds and works great on any kind of floor or carpet. It's not bulky or cumbersome, so it can roll right up to a table or desk– there's no need to transfer to a chair. Its sturdy yet lightweight aluminum frame makes it durable and comfortable. Its dual motors power it at up to 3.7 miles per hour and its automatic electromagnetic brakes stop on a dime. The rechargeable battery powers it for up to 8 miles on a single charge. Plus, its exclusive foldable

NEW split frame design makes it easier to lift design enables you to transport it easily and even store it in a closet or under a bed when it's not in use. Now you can even detach the back wheel and motor so the heaviest piece you have to lift weighs only 26 pounds!

Why spend another day letting mobility issues hamper your lifestyle? Call now and find out how you can have your very own Zoomer.

5 QUESTIONS with ...

LAUREN ASH

By Jacqueline Cutler

For six years, Lauren Ash was Dina, donning ill-fitting khakis and a polo shirt on the sitcom Superstore. Viewers did a bit of a double take earlier this year when they saw Ash as Lexi, the clueless editor on ABC's sitcom Not Dead Yet. While cuddling with her puppy earlier this year on a Zoom call, Ash answered our "5 Questions."

1. When were you starstruck? I did an episode of a podcast [about] Pedro Pascal [The Last of Us, The Mandalorian], and it got brought up to him. I think he's one of the best actors of our generation. And I cried, talking about how much I love him. Anyway, somebody tweets about this. Not in a million years did I think that Pedro Pascal would hear me cry about what a great actor he is. And he responded and said, "But you're a genius." I was on all fours on my floor, like, I can't believe that he knows who I am!

2. What shows did you grow up loving? The X-Files. It is my No. 1. Roseanne was a huge touchstone for me. I grew up very, very working class, very humble, and Roseanne was the only show where I felt like I saw something that was close to my experience reflected on television. Are You Being Served? was such a huge show for me. My grandmother's British, and I was riveted by that and Fawlty Towers.

3. What's the ideal day for you? We start at 11am, and we're probably passing out by 6, having blender drinks floating in a pool.

4. What job did you have before making it that continues to influence you? My first job was working at a Zellers, a Canadian kind of Kmart. I started working in the footwear department, then got bumped up to cashier. What was amazing about that job was that it was such a first full-circle moment for me, walking onto the set of Superstore, thinking, "This is how I started, and now I'm doing it on television."

5. What are your favorite movies? Clue is No. 1, which also has a Not Dead Yet tie-in because of Martin Mull. I've seen it so many times I can recite every single word. When I found out that he was on Not Dead Yet, I cried. Anyway, I was too nervous to talk to Martin when he was on set. On our very last day, I had written cards and gotten bottles of champagne for everybody. I wrote him a card and told him, "Clue is the reason that I'm an actor. I am too scared to talk to you because it's too intense." He tracked me down and was just like, "I can't believe you didn't tell me this sooner. I could have told you so many stories." Then he started telling me stories about the making of Clue, and I was just like 7 years old again. Eternal Sunshine of the Spotless Mind destroys me. It reflects how deeply I love emotion and drama, which is a huge reason why I was drawn to Not Dead Yet; it is as dramatic as it is comedic.

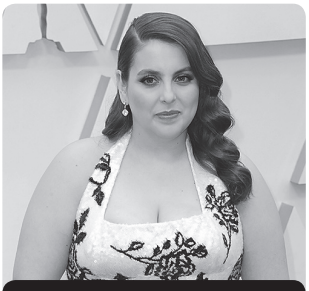
HOROSCOPES

By Yasmin Boland



Beanie Feldstein, a Cancer (born June 24), of "American Crime Story"

ARIES (March 21 - April 19) As nice as it would be to win the lottery and have millions in your bank account, obviously the odds of this happening are very low! That said, this week looks positive because your good old fashioned hard work could be leading to some financial rewards at last. Financial stability is calling.

TAURUS (April 20 - May 20) A potentially very good week for you. Efforts you've made with the important people in your life are going to start to pay off for you. You should start to feel a new sense of security. This new sense of stability could even apply to your finances. Keep moving forwards.

GEMINI (May 21 - June 20) It's true to say that hard work doesn't always lead to successful life, but it sure does help! This week though, it looks as though efforts you've been making professionally are finally paying off for you, and you should start to feel more secure work wise. Keep on keeping on.

CANCER (June 21 - July 22) It's time to pull apart all your dearest-held life philosophies. Open your mind to thinking differently. If you're absolutely stuck on one idea about how life should play out, work out where this belief came from. Also a very good time to start a course of study. Travel for work well-starred.

LEO (July 23 - Aug. 22) You can be a star at work right now – can you feel your value there rising? If not, then it might help to up the Leo confidence a little. Think of all that you have to offer your company, clients and/or bosses. This could soon lead to greater financial stability.

VIRGO (Aug. 23 - Sept. 22) Challenges in your most important relationships right now should be welcomed rather than resented. Reason being, if you can shore up these relationships now, you will have a more secure and steadier time of it for the next … 30 years! Notice how doing as you would be done by pays off.

LIBRA (Sept. 23 - Oct. 22) Hard work and more money don't always go together – but sometimes they do and right now, they can do for you! So keep working hard and you should start to sense that rewards are coming your way. The same goes for intimacy – let people under your skin. It's ok to be vulnerable.

SCORPIO (Oct. 23 - Nov. 21) This should be one of the best times for relationships that you have had in years. Even if things still feel very up and down, focus on the good stuff and you will attract more good stuff – it's the law of attraction. Focus on your partner's/ex's good points, not their faults!

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 22 - Dec. 21) Your home life is going to be the source of a bit of tension and drama for the coming short while, so get used to it. That said, there will be light and shade and this week, there is some light. Efforts you've been making with your family or flatmates are paying off. Contentment awaits.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22 - Jan. 19) Even though you're back in the eye of the storm in some ways, there is also good news; you should start to feel as though the Universe is back on your side before too long. Also a good week for romance, for Capricorns who remember to set aside time for love.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 20 - Feb. 18) The more you love and adore yourself, the more your family and friends are going to love and adore you too. That's always the way but it applies double at the moment. So work on yourself self-esteem especially in relation to any troubled relationships. Your private life really can improve now.

PISCES (Feb. 19 - March 20) If you've been working on changing the way others see you, it looks like you're finally going to get results. This can be about the way you come across in the world but also about more superficial changes such as to your wardrobe. You're extra easy to get along with now.

Zuleyka Silver Previews An Audra/ Kyle Connection On "The Young And The Restless"

© 2022 CBS Broadcasting Inc., All Rights Reserved. Credit: Sonja Flemming

Kyle Abbott (Michael Mealor) has had another disagreement with wife Summer Newman (Allison Lanier) on The Young and the Restless, which sets the stage for future trouble between the married couple. On Monday, June 26, watch for Audra Charles (Zuleyka Silver) to come upon Kyle and strike up a conversation.

"Audra may not be everyone's cup of tea," Silver tells TV Weekly. "[Viewers] may not like her, but I think they love to see her stir the pot."

The businesswoman grows more intrigued with Kyle the more she gets to know him. On the surface, the self-made woman has little in common with the wealthy heir to Jabot Cosmetics. "Audra respects people who work hard," Silver suggests. "She sees Kyle's privilege. There's not tension between them because of that, but there is some pushback. She'll joke about his privileged background."

Beneath Audra's ribbing there lies some curiosity. "She's intrigued by how attractive [Kyle] is. There's something there. The more she talks to him, she sees there's more to him," Silver says.

A growing dynamic between Audra and Kyle won't win her any goodwill with Summer, but Silver points out that the two women already weren't getting along. "Summer doesn't like Audra at all," Silver says. "She sees Audra as the woman who broke her brother Noah's [Rory Gibson] heart."

Still, Summer has her work cut out for her if she's going to get under Audra's skin. "She's not threatened by Summer," Silver offers. "From Audra's perspective, she sees herself as more mature. She's amused when she can get a rise out of Summer. It's been an interesting dynamic so far and it will continue to be."

Audra will discover some of Kyle's past when he reveals to her that he once had an affair with Tara Locke (Elizabeth Leiner) while she was still married to her husband Ashland Locke (Richard Burgi; Robert Newman). Kyle and Tara's fling resulted in the birth of Harrison (Kellen Enriquez).

Kyle sharing this personal information with Audra is doubly intriguing. Not only does Audra know more about him, but she's also finding Kyle a bit more thrilling. "Audra can get a little bored, and she may think that she can get this side of Kyle out of him more often," theorizes Silver, adding that finding out his past "gives her validation — whether she's aware of it or not."

ASK MATT

HOW CAN I WATCH FIRE COUNTRY AGAIN?

@TVGMMattRoush

Question: Fire Country's season finale crushed our good Bode into the dirt. Now every character is devastated. How can I watch next season without crying? –Sandra R.

Matt Roush: Now I'm someone who loves to have a good cry with my favorite TV shows, but I get it, when a show goes out of its way to end a season on a down note, it can be frustrating. With Fire Country, it was probably too soon to blow up the premise of Bode being an inmate firefighter after just one season, though they might have left him in a less precarious situation. Still, I imagine it won't be too long into Season 2 before Bode and the Three Rock crew are back in action,

Question: Due to the loss of Lance Reddick, I have been rewatching Fringe. Is there any chance of a TV movie with the remaining original characters? –Kristi

Matt Roush: I would surely watch such a thing as well, and I'd never say never when gauging the possibility of genre IP (intellectual property) being revived in some form or another. But I'm not aware of any movement regarding a Fringe comeback, and the longer time passes it seems more a pipe dream.

CHEERS & JEERS

by Damian Holbrook
TV Guide Magazine

@damianholbrook

CHEERS TO FATAL ATTRACTION'S

real killer. Lizzy Caplan and Joshua Jackson slay as the illicit lovers originated by Glenn Close and Michael Douglas, but it's the gripping Amanda Peet, as the wife undone by their affair on the Paramount+ drama, that we're dying for.

CHEERS TO JESSE SPENCER

for keeping NBC's Chicago Fire lit while costar Taylor Kinney is on a leave of absence. That sort of brotherhood warms our heart.

follow Cheers & Jeers

JEERS TO A MILLION LITTLE THINGS

for shattering us into a million pieces. We're still ugly crying after the stunning May 3 series finale on ABC.

JEERS TO THE CW'S ALTERED REALITY.

They cancel scripted gems like The Flash and Nancy Drew, then revive Max's short-lived and so-not-built-for-broadcast TV dating game FBoy Island? Coming this fall… sloppy seconds!

BETTER THAN BOTOX: Takes Years Off Your Face in Minutes

Women are raving about the life-changing effects of this powerful formula.

There's no denying that people — mostly women — are on a mission to discover the best way to eliminate fine lines and wrinkles permanently. The $14 billion dollars spent on aesthetic procedures in 2021 alone is a clear indication of that fact.

But now science appears to be offering a simpler solution. It's a special delivery technology adapted for skincare that gets superior results.

Known as advanced liposome technology, this powerful distribution system ensures that vital nutrients are delivered exactly where your skin needs them the most, providing your skin with maximum anti-aging benefits.

New Age-Defying 'Dermal Filler' Cream in High Demand

Al Sears, MD, of Palm Beach, Florida, recently released an anti-aging cream that adapts this breakthrough medical technology into the realm of skincare, and he's struggling to keep up with consumer demand.

Dr. Sears is South Florida's leading anti-aging pioneer. He has authored over 500 reports, scientific papers, and books on anti-aging. A frequent lecturer at global anti-aging conferences, Dr. Sears spoke at the WPBF 25 Health & Wellness Festival featuring Dr. Oz, along with special guest, Suzanne Somers. Thousands of people were in attendance as Dr. Sears discussed his latest anti-aging breakthroughs.

This powerful cream, known as Restore, keeps selling out faster than it's produced — and people are raving about the effect it's having on their skin.

"Within a few minutes of applying the cream, it visibly plumps out the under-eye area and my cheeks as well as those annoying lines that deepen as we age between the nose and lips. It also felt like it was tightening and smoothing my skin at the same time. I definitely feel I look younger whenever I use it," said Amy B., of Montville, New Jersey.

"The lines around my mouth and eyes are filled in and my skin is tightened. I love having younger-looking skin, so I will continue using Restore" raves Cathy C., of Florida.

The best part is that this cream has no adverse side effects, doesn't require a doctor's visit or prescription, and is 100% natural.

"Advanced liposome technology ensures that vital nutrients are delivered exactly where your skin needs them the most."

Powerful Delivery System Ensures Nutrients Penetrate Deep into Your Skin

The dermis is the underlying layer of skin that supplies nourishment and oxygen, and removes waste. In other words, it's responsible for keeping your outer layer of skin healthy. Liposome technology is designed to support and nourish this deeper layer of skin by delivering nutrients directly to it.

"All of Restore's powerful ingredients are encapsulated in a liposome shell — an organic container that carries the beautifying agents deep into the skin cells," explained Dr. Sears.

"Restore's liposome shell is composed of phosphatidylcholine or PC for short. While cell membranes repel water, they absorb PC because they're actually made of it. As a result, Restore is delivered deep into the cell for maximum firming and volume."

When you apply liposome cream to your face, the liposomes in the skin cream work their way inside your skin, fuse with the skin cell membranes and then release their contents directly to the cells. Regular skin creams don't have this capability.

Revolutionary Formula Reduces the Appearance of Wrinkles in Minutes

A Formula Designed to Take Years off Your Face in Minutes

Once it's penetrated the deeper layer of skin, Restore releases a unique blend of botanicals, vitamins and essential oils that reduces the appearance of fine lines and wrinkles, gives skin a more even tone, and moisturizes the interior layers of your dermal cells, firming and plumping your skin.

Restore's first skin-enhancing agent is Madonna lily leaf stem cell extract. It helps produce an even-toned complexion. In a clinical study reported in the Journal of Cosmetic Dermatology, participants treated with this extract for 28 days showed improvements in skin luminance and tone around the eyes.

Restore is also loaded with vitamin C, which British researchers have found reduces both wrinkles and dryness. "In Restore we use magnesium ascorbyl phosphate, a more stable form of vitamin C that doesn't break down in liquid as does ordinary C," explains Dr. Sears. "That means the antioxidant molecules stay intact within your skin cells where they can prevent damage from dangerous free radicals."

This powerful formula also features guarana seed extract, coenzyme Q10, and avocado oil. Japanese researchers have also found that coenzyme Q10 supports production of the thin membrane that separates layers of your skin, and French studies have shown that avocado oil improves skin cell metabolism and enhances skin thickness.

Where To Get Restore

Right now the only way to get this powerful age-defying delivery technology is through Dr. Sears.

To get life-changing results like Amy and Cathy, buyers should contact the Sears Health Hotline at 1-800-685-1329. "We simply don't have enough supply to get Restore shipped directly to stores," said Dr. Sears. "The hotline allows us to ship the product directly to the customer – the one who really wants it."

Dr. Sears feels so strongly about this product, that he offers a 100% money-back guarantee on every order. "Just send back the bottle and any unused product within 90 days, and I'll send you your money back," said Dr. Sears.

The hotline will be taking orders for the next 48 hours. After that, the phone number may be shut down to allow them to restock. Call 1-800-685-1329 to secure your limited supply of Restore. If you are not able to get through due to extremely high call volume, please try again! Call NOW to qualify for this limited time offer provided at a significant discount. To take advantage of this exclusive offer use Promo Code: RESTTW07 when you call in.
